The Tonawanda City Public Library used book sale 1.was held this coming Friday to Sunday during regular library hours. The City Community Council 2.gathers used books since June for this annual event. In the past buyers came from across the city. "Our sale 3.has got more and more popular each year," 4.say organizer Jason Eliot. "It is a great opportunity for book lovers." The price of the books will vary. While most will sell for $1, the more valuable ones could 5.costed as much as $3. At the end of the last day, all of what remains of the sale inventory 6.was donated to area charities.

A-2. You Be the Editor

The following paragraph contains six mistakes. Find the errors and correct them.

I want to thank all the volunteers that 7.have worked at the Summer Fun music festival last weekend. As the main coordinator of Summer Fun, I 8.am thrilled with every volunteer's level of enthusiasm. Putting together this festival was a challenge for me! 9.If had it not been for your commitment, the festival 10.would not be such a success. Your help in setting up the booths 11.were particularly appreciated. I visited almost every food stand. It was a pleasure to enjoy the great food and chat with the venders. I attended both days of the event. Despite Sunday evening's rain, turnout was just as good for our closing performances as it 12.did for Saturday's opening concert. Overall, it was a great weekend!
